Headline:

Chilly for some overnight. Rain spreading east on Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:

Fine with clear spells into the evening, allowing temperatures to dip. This bringing a risk of fog patches and low cloud once again overnight. Locally chilly under the largely clear skies. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Monday:

Bright start for most with some sunny spells, after a chilly start with local fog patches clearing. Thickening cloud and outbreaks of rain spreading eastwards from late morning. Very mild. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:

Unsettled and rather windy through this period, perhaps especially Wednesday and early Thursday, with spells of rain and heavy showers. Temperatures starting well above average, but trending downwards after midweek.
